

Chat box notes from Quick & LIVE-ly: Ebooks on NC LIVE webinar

Presented by Lisa Sheffield, February 4, 2015

Recording and support materials available at: <http://statelibrary.ncdcr.gov/ld/webinars.html>

Participant feedback on ProQuest ebrary:

Easy to use; 16 different search options in advanced search

Great resource, easy to use

Greatly expands student access to resources for research especially online students

Terrific LibGuide, created by ProQuest, at: <http://proquest.libguides.com/ebRARY>

Participant feedback on Ebooks on EBSCOhost

Easy to use and familiar since EBSCO databases were in the old NCLive

In-page phrase search is great for students

Navigation options are easy to use

Very popular with public library patrons

Good selection*Recent publications*Popular publishers* Easy to navigate feature*Easy to find* easy to open and began to read.

Participant feedback on MyLibrary

Familiar looking interface

Limited amount of titles

Participant feedback on Home Grown Collection

Love the focus on NC publishers, but the interface is confusing and the organization not as useful as it could be

Hardest to navigate with too many hurdles to jump; immediate login (account activation) is not immediately available so user has to wait for access
