Flies dancing
on your pizza?

Can you hold
your breath?

What's the biggest flower?

Who owns
your DNA?

Up for skysurfing?

You would too
if you had tastebuds
on your feet!

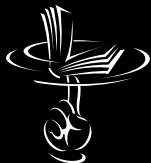

The hibernating
hedgehog breathes
once every 6 minutes.
Without turning blue!

The rafflesia is huge!
It's 3 feet wide!
But no sniffing! It
smells like rotten meat.
Eeuuww!

Europe is battling over
genetic patents now.
If you like sci-fi, you'll love the future.

Grab a board!
Your jumping partner
films you with a helmet cam. It's the first video sport!
