Impact

Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) funds are federal funds awarded to the State Library of North Carolina annually by the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS). The funds are governed by the purposes and priorities set forth by the US Congress, in conjunction with the Office of Management and Budget's (OMB) Uniform Grant Guidance, for allowable uses of federal funds. The State Library of North Carolina Continuing Education Scholarship Grants utilize LSTA funds and must address one of the LSTA Priorities in order to be eligible for these grant funds.

Knowledge, Skills, & Information*

Describe the knowledge, skills, or information the participant anticipates gaining as a result of attending this conference. Keep in mind while networking can be beneficial, it should not be the primary purpose for attending a continuing education event.

Character Limit: 1000

Intended Audience*

Continuing Education Scholarship Grants funded by LSTA are meant to ultimately benefit the library's end users. What audience/s will the participant be focusing on while attending the conference and how will that intended audience benefit from participant's newly acquired knowledge and/or skills?
